TITLE OF WORK _____

MATERIALS/MEDIA _____

SIZE _____

IS FRAMING* REQUIRED – YES / NO

*Frames are suitable for works 35 x 28 cm (or 28 x 20 cm if the cardboard mount is used). Framed or ready-to-hang works are welcome. Small-scale works are preferred, and the number of works per artist will be restricted to allow many artists to be included in the exhibition. Small sculptures and ceramic works will be presented on tables.

PRICE (if work is for sale)* _____

*If work is for sale, the price will be displayed in the catalogue. Prospective purchasers will be asked to contact the artist directly to make suitable arrangements unless the proceeds are being donated to the Sirius Foundation to fund further activities in the Save Our Sirius campaign. The catalogue will indicate works whose sale will assist the campaign.

DONATION TO SIRIUS FOUNDATION – YES / NO

By submitting your work to This is Sirius exhibition, you consent to your work being reproduced to promote the exhibition, to provide a record of it (e.g. on the Save Our Sirius website), and to support the Save Our Sirius campaign. All care but no responsibility is taken for artworks submitted. We cannot guarantee all works will be displayed.

Collect work at the end of the exhibition after 3pm on Sunday 16 June 2017 from the gallery, or Monday 17 June from 37 Lower Fort Street, Dawes Point (phone 02 9251 8650). Enquires to Margaret Bishop and John Dunn, Sirius Foundation, phone 02 9251 8650.
